Sharing the Gifts

Introduction

“The Church exists to evangelize.” Addressing the signs of the times and the urgent needs of the day, Pope St. Paul VI taught us to reclaim our heritage and the Great Commission of Jesus Christ: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” This is not something that we do in our spare time or something that is “extra” to our Catholic faith or even optional; it is the heart of everything we do. Now more than ever, our God calls us to be disciples of his Son, and apostles who bring the good news to the world. It is clear that today we are bogged down by so many important issues and concerns. here is a great deal of anger, division, anxiety and hopelessness in our world. In times like these, we are tempted to retreat and “circle the wagons.”

Some would have us focus only internally, guarding and defending our Catholic faith against the forces of the world. Others want to use the faith solely to resolve key issues like abortion, same-sex marriage, capital punishment, immigration and so many others.

Before and above anything else, however, our Catholic faith unites us with Jesus Christ in the Holy Spirit, and thus leads us to the Father and the kingdom of heaven. We remember Jesus’ words in the Gospel: “I have come so that you may have life, and have it abundantly.” (John 10:10) We have received this incredible gift, and all God asks of us is that we extend it to others.

Questions for reflection:

How comfortable would you feel explaining your faith to a non-Catholic?

How do I “live my faith well ...” so that others might ask me about God because they are sure he is with me? (Zech 8:23)

How does the call to evangelization represent a solution to being endlessly bogged down in the debates over important issues outlined by the Bishop?

What are the signs of the times which make the call to evangelize so urgent in this day?

Bishop William A. Wack

LOS SÍMBOLOS DE LA NAVIDAD

ORÍGENES

Los primeros misioneros en Europa aprovecharon una de las tradiciones paganas para evangelizar. Esta consistía en prender velas durante el invierno que representaban al dios sol.

FORMA CIRCULAR

Representa el amor de Dios que es eterno y también nuestro amor al Señor y al prójimo que debe renovarse constantemente y nunca detenerse.

ORIGINS

The first missionaries in Europe took advantage of the pagan traditions to evangelize. One of them consisted of lighting candles during the winter, which represented the sun god.

CIRCULAR SHAPE

It represents God's eternal love for us and also speaks of our own love towards the Lord and others, which needs to be renewed constantly.

LA CORONA DE ADVIENTO

LAS RAMAS

Verde es el color de la esperanza y vida. El anhelo más importante debe ser el llegar a una unión más estrecha con Dios, como el árbol y sus ramas.

LAS VELAS

Las cuatro velas de la Corona se prenden cada domingo de Adviento. Representan las tinieblas que disipan a medida que se acerca el nacimiento del Señor.

THE BRANCHES

Green is the color of hope and life. Our biggest hope should be to achieve a closer union with God as the tree and its branches.

THE CANDLES

The four candles of the wreath are lit each Sunday of Advent. They represent the dissipation of darkness as we approach the birth of the Lord.

Good Shepherd parishioners Duane and Carrie Daunt have co-authored the perfect book to give to men this Christmas. Man Your Post: Learning to Lead like St. Joseph helps men develop the virtues Saint Joseph models. The foreword is by Dr. Scott Hahn and each chapter contains testimonies from men who have benefited from the strength of St. Joseph in their lives. In easily readable and short chapters are lessons all men can learn from St. Joseph. Pope Francis has declared this the year of St. Joseph. We are all a part of creation and entrusted by God with its care—Advent is a time of hope, waiting joyfully, as Mary, Joseph, and all creation did in expectation of Christ's birth. As people of hope we are called not just to wait for Christ's return but to help usher in Christ's hope through our lives. This is especially true now, amidst multiple crises: climate, biodiversity loss, pandemics, and mass migrations. During Advent, let's create and embody hope by taking action for each other and our planet that matters. Let's live Laudato si' by preparing for Christ's coming and living reconciled with each other and all creation.

In 2021, the Dobbs v. Jackson case from Mississippi is coming before the United States Supreme Court. This case holds the potential to overturn Roe v. Wade and dramatically change abortion law in our country. For more information on the case, go to: <https://www.studentsforlifeaction.org/dobbs/>.

Prayer for the Case of Dobbs v. Jackson Before the U.S. Supreme Court
God the Father of all history, We thank you today for the gift of the cause you have given us. You have entrusted us with the vital mission of bringing the protection of law to our unborn brothers and sisters. Strengthen us in that fight. Today we pray specifically for the Dobbs v. Jackson case before our nation's Supreme Court. This case could be a breakthrough in the struggle against abortion in our land, and we ask today that it will be. We pray for all nine Justices of the United States Supreme Court, that you grant them profound wisdom and an understanding of the moment, and of the great good they could do for humanity with this decision. We pray for their clerks and others who assist the Justices. Grant that all of them who value your unborn children will play a role in helping the Court to undo the travesty of Roe v. Wade. Be with the attorneys who are preparing arguments to the Court on behalf of the cause of life. Give them eloquence and wisdom. Fill them with Your Holy Spirit, that they may speak with His voice. We pray for the hearts of the American people, who are so deeply divided on this issue. Soften the hearts of those who support abortion, that they might see the pro-life cause for what it is: dedicated not to restricting legitimate rights, but to expanding the boundaries of the human family by protecting its most vulnerable members. Above all, we ask that your will be done. Give us the strength to accept whatever the outcome may be, and the courage to continue speaking out for every child of yours who is subjected to injustice, in solidarity with Christ Our Lord who also suffered in the flesh, and who will wipe away every tear. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Palabras del Párroco

Domingo, 5 de diciembre de 2021 - Segundo domingo de Adviento - Ciclo C

Compartir el Don

Introducción

"La Iglesia existe para evangelizar".<sup>1</sup> Ante las señales de los tiempos y las necesidades urgentes de la época, el Papa San Pablo VI nos enseñó a reclamar nuestra herencia y la Gran Comisión de Jesucristo: "Vayan, pues, y hagan que todos los pueblos sean mis discípulos. Bautícenlos en el Nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, y enséñenles a cumplir todo lo que yo les he encomendado a ustedes" (Mateo 28, 19-20). Esto no es algo que hagamos en nuestro tiempo libre o algo que sea "adicional" a nuestra fe católica, o incluso opcional; es el corazón de todo lo que hacemos. Ahora más que nunca, nuestro Dios nos llama a ser discípulos de su Hijo, y apóstoles que llevan la buena nueva al mundo.

Es evidente que hoy en día estamos agobiados por tantas cuestiones y preocupaciones importantes. Hay mucha ira, división, ansiedad y desesperanza en nuestro mundo. En tiempos como estos, tenemos la tentación de retirarnos y defendernos. Algunos quieren que nos concentremos solo internamente, protegiendo y defendiendo nuestra fe católica contra las fuerzas del mundo. Otros quieren utilizar la fe únicamente para resolver cuestiones claves como el aborto, el matrimonio entre personas del mismo sexo, la pena capital, la inmigración y muchas otras.

Sin embargo, antes y por encima de todo, nuestra fe católica nos une a Jesucristo en el Espíritu Santo, y así nos conduce al Padre y al reino de los cielos. Recordamos las palabras de Jesús en el Evangelio: "Yo he venido para que tengan vida, y la tengan en abundancia" (Juan 10, 10). Hemos recibido este don increíble, y todo lo que Dios nos pide es que lo llevemos a los demás.

Preguntas para reflexionar:

¿Cuán cómodos se sentirían al explicar su fe a una persona que no es católica?

¿Cómo se puede "vivir bien [nuestra] fe..." para que los demás nos pregunten por Dios al estar seguros de que Él está con nosotros? (Zac 8:23)

¿De qué manera el llamado a la evangelización representa una solución para no estancarse en los debates sobre los temas importantes esbozados por el Obispo?

¿Cuáles son las señales de los tiempos que hacen que el llamado a evangelizar sea tan urgente en estos tiempos?

Una Oración de Adviento

Dios de luz y esperanza
Míranos con amor
y llénanos del Espíritu de Jesús
para que podamos amarte y servirte en tu reino.
Protégenos durante estas semanas
y mantenenos vigilantes en oración
Mientras esperamos la venida de nuestro
Señor, Jesucristo,
¿Quién es la luz del mundo?
Y quien vive y reina contigo y el
Espíritu Santo,
Un Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.
Amén

An Advent Prayer

God of light and hope,
look upon us in love,
and fill us with the Spirit of Jesus
that we may love you and serve you in your kingdom.
Protect us during these weeks
and keep us watchful in prayer
As we await the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ,
Who is the light of the world,
And who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God , for ever and ever.
Amen
