Readings: Ezequiel 2:2-5, Psalm 123 “Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy”, 2 Corinthians 12:7-10, Mark 6:1-6

Dear brothers and sisters: This is a great day, a day to thank God for the gift of our political and religious freedom we enjoy and to pray for God's special blessings on the rulers and the people of our country. Today we remember our past and recognize in gratitude to the founding fathers of our democratic republic, especially, Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence, and James Madison, the architect of the Constitution, who believed that all power, including political power, came from God and was given to the people who entrusted this power to their elected leaders.

We remember and pray for all our brave soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice of their lives to keep this country a safe and a free country, and for those who are now engaged in bringing about security, peace, justice and prosperity in our country. Today we are reminded of the basic principle underlined in the constitution, that “all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

Today's Scripture readings talk about rejection and challenge us to face rejection with prophetic courage and optimism. Very often our friends, families, or childhood companions fail to listen to us and refuse to accept the words of grace, love, and encouragement that we offer to them because they are so familiar with us that they are unable to see us as God's appointed instruments, the agents of God's healing and saving grace. But we have to face such rejection with prophetic courage because by our Baptism we are called to be prophets like Jesus, sharing Jesus' prophetic mission. As prophets, our task is to “speak the truth in love,” and to oppose the evils in our society without condoning or encouraging sinful behavior even in our dear ones. Let us also acknowledge, appreciate, and encourage the prophets of our time who stand for Truth and Justice in our society with the wisdom of God in their heads, the power and love of the Holy Spirit in their words, and the courage of God in their actions.

I pray that all may live and experience the political and religious freedom, which can lead us all, closer to God in our everyday of life, giving testimony of love as sons and daughters of one true and loving God.

God Bless America, God bless you all,
Rev. Dilip K. Soreng, SVD

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.
You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control:

the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant,
can awake from its seeming lethargy,
overstep its conventional boundaries,
invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.
During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father.
Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area
and animated with a true spirit of gratitude,
we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son
to reach the heavenly Jerusalem,
where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Oración por la Seguridad en la Temporada de Huracanes

Oh Dios, Maestro de este mundo, Escucha las voces humildes de tus hijos.
El Mar de Galilea obedeció Tu mandato
Y regresó a antigua quietud.
Tú sigue siendo el amo de la tierra y el mar.
Vivimos a la sombra de un peligro del cual no tenemos control.

El Golfo, como un gigante provocado y enojado,
Puede despertar de su aparente letargo,
Sobrepasar sus límites convencionales,
Invadir nuestra tierra y propagar el caos y el desastre.
Durante esta temporada de huracanes nos dirigimos a ti,
Oh Padre Amoroso.

Líbranos de tragedias pasadas cuyos recuerdos aún están presentes Y cuyas heridas no parecen sanar con el paso del tiempo.

Oh Virgen, Estrella del Mar, Nuestra querida Madre,
Le pedimos que interceda ante su Hijo y le pida,
De manera que salve de las calamidades a esta área
Y animados con un verdadero espíritu gratitud,
Caminaremos tras las huellas de tu hijo Divino
Para llegar a la Jerusalén celestial,

Donde una eternidad sin tormentas nos espera. Amén
[Compuesto por Obispo Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Segundo Obispo de Lafayette (1956-1973), tras el huracán Audrey en 1957]

We are all a part of creation and entrusted by God with its care—On Independence Day we celebrate the founding of our country on a democratic ideal — an equal voice for all. It is an ideal imperfectly realized but which we continue to pursue. In our system, equal voice translates to the right to vote and equal justice under the law. Implicit in this ideal is that all persons will be heard and treated with dignity. We must reject actions and ideas which threaten the rights of individuals and deny their intrinsic worth as human beings. Pope Francis talks about integral ecology, the idea that sustainability and social justice are inseparable: "...a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor." Laudato si', para. 49. This is Earth Democracy. Call Don Ruane at (239) 464-3429 or email ruanedon@aol.com for more information about BBCCC.

Palabras del Párroco

Domingo, 4 de julio de 2021 - XIV Domingo Ordinario - Ciclo B

Lectura: Ezequiel 2,2-5, "Salmo 122: Ten piedad de nosotros, ten piedad.", Corintios 12,7-10, Marcos 6, 1-6

Queridos hermanos y hermanas: Este es un gran día, un día para agradecer a Dios por el regalo de nuestra libertad política y religiosa que disfrutamos y para orar por las bendiciones especiales de Dios sobre los gobernantes y el pueblo de nuestro país. Hoy recordamos nuestro pasado y reconocemos en gratitud a los padres fundadores de nuestra república democrática, especialmente, Thomas Jefferson, el autor de la Declaración de Independencia, y James Madison, el arquitecto de la Constitución, quienes creían que todo poder, incluido el poder político, vino de Dios y fue dado a las personas que confiaron este poder a sus líderes electos.

Recordamos y oramos por todos nuestros valientes soldados que hicieron el sacrificio supremo de sus vidas para mantener este país seguro y libre, y por aquellos que ahora están comprometidos en lograr la seguridad, la paz, la justicia y la prosperidad en nuestro país. Hoy recordamos el principio básico subrayado en la constitución, que "todos los hombres son creados iguales, que están dotados por su Creador de ciertos derechos inalienables, que entre estos están la Vida, la Libertad y la búsqueda de la Felicidad".

Las lecturas de las Escrituras de hoy hablan sobre el rechazo y nos desafían a enfrentar el rechazo con valor y optimismo proféticos. Muy a menudo, nuestros amigos, familiares o compañeros de la infancia no nos escuchan y se niegan a aceptar las palabras de gracia, amor y aliento que les ofrecemos porque están tan familiarizados con nosotros que no pueden vernos como los designados por Dios. Instrumentos, los agentes de la gracia sanadora y salvadora de Dios. Pero tenemos que afrontar ese rechazo con valentía profética porque por nuestro Bautismo estamos llamados a ser profetas como Jesús, compartiendo la misión profética de Jesús. Como profetas, nuestra tarea es "hablar la verdad en amor" y oponernos a los males de nuestra sociedad sin condonar o alentar el comportamiento pecaminoso incluso en nuestros seres queridos. Reconozcamos, apreciemos y animemos también a los profetas de nuestro tiempo que defienden la Verdad y la Justicia en nuestra sociedad con la sabiduría de Dios en la cabeza, el poder y el amor del Espíritu Santo en sus palabras y el valor de Dios en sus acciones.

Oro para que todos puedan vivir y experimentar la libertad política y religiosa, que puede llevarnos a todos, más cerca de Dios en el día a día de nuestra vida, dando testimonio de amor como hijos e hijas de un Dios verdadero y amoroso. Dios bendiga a América,

Dios los bendiga a todos,

Rev. Dilip K. Soreng SVD
