RENEWAL

Vatican II recognized the need to return to our original charism. Gaudium et Spes was a path forward to engage the world around us. Lumen Gentium serves as a reflection on who we are as a Church, here to glorify God and announce the Good News. If you have not read these documents of the Second Vatican Council, or if it has been several years since you have done so, I exhort you to read these documents, which are still relevant today and are more accessible than ever before. “By her proclamation of the Gospel, [the Church] draws her hearers to receive and profess the faith, she prepares them for baptism, snatches them from the slavery of error, and she incorporates them into Christ so that through love for him they grow to full maturity.”⁴

Pope St. John Paul II was the first to use the term “New Evangelization,” and in response to the question about what he meant by it, he said: “The commemoration of this half of the millennium of evangelization will achieve its full meaning, if as bishops, with your priests and faithful, you accept it as your commitment; a commitment, not of re-evangelization, but rather of a new evangelization; new in its ardour, methods and expression.”⁵

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, picking up the theme of evangelization, taught that our faith is not merely a program but rather an opening of the heart ... to a person: Jesus Christ.⁶ Then – and now – we have to think of new ways to evangelize and re-evangelize the world.

Even more recently, our Holy Father Francis has laid out a vision for the universal Church, building on the teachings of his predecessors: “I dream of a ‘missionary option,’ that is, a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything, so that the Church’s customs, ways of doing things, times and schedules, language and structures can be suitably channeled for the evangelization of today’s world rather than for her self-preservation.”⁷ Pope Francis has repeatedly urged everyone – clergy and laity alike – to leave the comfort of our homes, churches, rectories, etc., and imitate Jesus in seeking out the lost and bringing them the Good News of salvation. Clearly, the Holy Spirit is moving us to return to our roots.

Questions for reflection:

- ◆ What qualifies someone to be a missionary disciple in your eyes?
- ◆ How can we assist people to open their hearts to the person of Jesus Christ?
- ◆ What new methods must be employed in the New Evangelization? Name an example of the New Evangelization in action.
- ◆ If you were Peter and God asked you to spread his kingdom all over the Diocese of Pensacola– Tallahassee, where would you start?
- ◆ If you were asked what is the “kingdom of God,” how would you respond?
- ◆ What do you think our society would look like if we were all in full communion with God?

Palabras del Párroco

Domingo, 30 de enero de 2022 - IV Domingo de Tempo Ordinario- Ciclo C

RENOVACIÓN

El Concilio Vaticano II reconoció la necesidad de regresar a nuestro carisma original. La Gaudium et Spes fue un camino a seguir para comprometernos con el mundo que nos rodea. Lumen Gentium sirve de reflexión sobre quiénes somos como Iglesia, aquí para glorificar a Dios y anunciar la buena nueva. Si no han leído estos documentos del Concilio Vaticano II, o si han pasado varios años desde que lo hicieron, les exhorto a leerlos, pues continúan siendo relevantes en la actualidad y están más accesibles que nunca. "Predicando el Evangelio, la Iglesia atrae a los oyentes a la fe y a la confesión de la fe, los prepara al bautismo, los libra de la servidumbre del error y los incorpora a Cristo para que por la caridad crezcan en Él hasta la plenitud".⁴

El Papa San Juan Pablo II fue el primero en utilizar el término "Nueva Evangelización", y al preguntarle qué quería decir con ello, respondió: "La conmemoración del medio milenio de evangelización tendrá su significación plena si es un compromiso suyo como obispos, junto con su presbiterio y fieles; compromiso, no de re-evangelización, pero sí de una evangelización nueva. Nueva en su ardor, en sus métodos, en su expresión".⁵

Al retomar el tema de la evangelización, el Papa emérito Benedicto XVI enseñó que nuestra fe no es un mero programa, sino una apertura del corazón... a una persona: Jesucristo.⁶ En aquel momento, como ahora, debemos pensar en nuevas formas de evangelizar y reevangelizar el mundo.

Aún en tiempos más recientes, nuestro Santo Padre Francisco ha expuesto una visión para la Iglesia universal, basándose en las enseñanzas de sus predecesores: "Sueño con una opción misionera capaz de transformarlo todo, para que las costumbres, los estilos, los horarios, el lenguaje y toda estructura eclesial se convierta en un cauce adecuado para la evangelización del mundo actual más que para la autopreservación".⁷ El Papa Francisco ha instado repetidamente a todos, clero y laicos por igual, a salir de la comodidad de nuestras casas, iglesias, rectorías y demás, para imitar a Jesús en la búsqueda de los perdidos y llevarles la buena nueva de la salvación. Está claro que el Espíritu Santo nos está impulsando a regresar a nuestras raíces.

Preguntas para reflexionar

- ◆ ¿Qué cualidades consideran ustedes que debe tener una persona para ser un discípulo misionero?
- ◆ ¿Cómo podemos ayudar a que la gente abra su corazón a la persona de Jesucristo?
- ◆ ¿Qué nuevos métodos deben emplearse en la Nueva Evangelización? Mencionen un ejemplo de la Nueva Evangelización en acción.
- ◆ Si ustedes fueran Pedro, y Dios les pidiera que extendieran su Reino por toda la diócesis de Pensacola-Tallahassee, ¿dónde comenzarían?
- ◆ Si les preguntaran qué es el "Reino de Dios", ¿cómo responderían?
- ◆ ¿Cómo creen que sería nuestra sociedad si todos estuviéramos en plena comunión con Dios?
